

Italy

— you can have it all!

Why should couples have to choose between beaches, cities of art and spellbinding hills? Why choose between castles, villas or beach weddings?

If you choose to say 'I do' in Italy, straight away thousands of possibilities open up for your wedding abroad: the panorama of the Amalfi coast, the magic of Florence at sunset, the Sardinian beaches and a romantic gondola ride in Venice.

Italy is the symbol of love, of eternal cities, of unforgettable sunsets, of everything you could possibly need for a unique day.

Extraordinarily beautiful places in Italy have captured the gaze of great painters, poets and musicians from all over the world for centuries. And they will also captivate both bride and groom for a day that will stay in their hearts forever.

'Many couples get in touch with us to ask for advice about which is the most beautiful area in Italy to get married in – it's the most difficult question!' says Sara Mazzei, wedding planner and owner of Infinity Weddings and Events.

'From the Tuscan hills to the cities of art, from the wonders of the Amalfi coast to the grandeur of Rome and to the Sicilian beaches, Italy surely is the most romantic and glamorous country. It is a place where it's possible to combine wonderful locations with a lifestyle that is unique throughout the world,' insists Sara.

How do I get married in Italy?

'First of all you should entrust experts in the profession. You could get in touch directly with the location of the reception such as the villas, castles or the big hotels. However, if you want something really special you can contact an agency of professional wedding planners that will help you to create your special day. Always read the testimonials carefully, which you can find on the various websites, and get them to send you the contact details of couples who have already worked with that particular wedding planner.

'Never trust low cost offers. There are a lot of people who like to think that they are wedding planners and can offer services at cut prices – but the only thing that turns out to be cut is the quality of the service,' says Sara.

Elope to Italy

Italy is the country for runaway love stories, of evenings at sunset overlooking the sea and sipping on a glass of fine wine, promising your undying love. You can arrive in Italy and enjoy a Grand Tour just like the great poets and writers used to in the 1800s. 'In these cases we suggest the sunsets of the Amalfi coast. Positano and Amalfi are our favourite destinations – always followed closely behind by Venice and its canals and islands.

Country chic wedding

'We recommend the Tuscan countryside to anyone who wants to get away from the stress of city life, the smog, the intolerable traffic of the daily commute from office to home,' advises Sara. Tuscany offers castles in Chianti, fascinating villas in the hills of Siena surrounded by peace and quiet and country sounds. There are also the flowers, trees and air that only Tuscany and Chianti can give you. A wedding surrounded by vineyards and olive groves is a natural picture frame for an unforgettable wedding.

Princess wedding

From a beautiful villa on Lake Como to wondrous residences in the hills of Lucca and Florence – there are many luxurious opportunities in Italy to live out your day like a princess in a place right out of a 'Disney fairytale'.

Sara says: "Every woman carries in her heart the childhood desire to meet her knight in shining armour to whom she can declare her undying love, and then celebrate her wedding like a princess." Italy offers the opportunity of a marriage fit for Royalty, with a combination of precious embroidery, brocades and damasks, prestigious silks, fine china from all over the world, gold and silver detailing, precious stones and wood compete to enrich a magical and suggestive atmosphere of an insurmountable beauty and a historical and artistic uniqueness.
